
Fife Guest House Kirkcaldy - Scotland

The HouseDunedin is situated in the heart of Kirkcaldy, just a short stroll from shops, bars, restaurants, bus station and rail terminal. Built in 1854 as a church manse, Dunedin had several owners before Yvonne & Les Duffy bought the house in 1990 and moved from Edinburgh to provide Kirkcaldy with a boutique style Guest House that can compete with the best in Scotland.

- All rooms have private shower rooms or en-suite facilities and are spacious, warm, clean and comfortable.
- Private off-street parking is available and storage of golf clubs or bicycles can be arranged if required.
- Accurate driving directions to Dunedin can be provided directly from this website. Simply click on our "How to find us" page (just to the left) and take the guesswork out of planning your route to Dunedin.
- Complimentary wireless broadband allows you to surf the net or check emails from your laptop - all in the comfort of your room and without a cable in sight!Dunedin isn't a typical Fife Guest House. It's a spacious and contemporary family home that just happens to be a Fife Guest House - and a very comfortable one too!